Persian King and New Stallion Shares in the Auctav Catalogue

Auctav's Winter Breeding Sale on December 11 will feature shares and breeding rights for leading stallions, including Persian King, Beaumec de Houelle, and Nirvana du Berlais. The online auction begins at 3 PM (French time) on auctav.com.

Persian King: A Promising First Generation

Persian King's first crop has already yielded around 15 winners. The Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner, who concluded his stellar career with a third-place finish in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, has seen his progeny achieve impressive sales results. Foals, yearlings, and 2-year-olds by Persian King have fetched prices as high as 600,000 guineas. Expectations are high for 2025, with names like Cap Saint Martin and Yoga Master poised to shine.

The Grey Gatsby: A Proven Global Performer

The Grey Gatsby's first crop hit the ground running with black-type performers like Master Gatsby. Over the past two breeding seasons, he has covered more than 220 mares, reflecting sustained popularity. In 2024, his progeny continued to excel both on the flat and over jumps. Notable performances include Atomic Blonde, placed third in a Grade 3 and Group 2 in the US, and European standouts such as By Exeter at Auteuil and Harmony Grey at Longchamp.

Beaumec de Houelle: Daughters Stealing the Show

Beaumec de Houelle's progeny, including Mamisuz de Houelle in the Haras d'Étreham - Prix Magalen Bryant (Gr.2), as well as La Marquise and La Pinsonnière, have boosted this Martaline son's profile. Standing at Haras de Montaigu, his first crop, now 4-year-olds, have proven equally adept in France, the UK, and Ireland, with rising demand in the sales ring.

Nirvana du Berlais: A First Crop to Impress

From an exceptional maternal line, Nirvana du Berlais showcased precocity over jumps. His first crop, now 3-year-olds in 2024, has delivered victories on the Flat over long distances and made their mark over obstacles. Notably, Lady Ga secured black-type status with a third-place finish in a Group 3 AQPS race at Vichy.
