Haras de Bois Roussel

AUCTAV s'est offert des murs historiques pour écrire son destin. Étendu sur 312 hectares, le Haras de Bois Roussel fut l'un des plus grands haras de France.

Créé en 1802 par la famille Roederer, il a été occupé successivement par les grands éleveurs Henry Delamarre, le « captain » J.-D. Cohn, Léon Voltera, la comtesse Batthyany et plus récemment par les poulinières de la famille Wildenstein et les yearlings de Jean-Pierre Dubois. Bois Roussel a également vu naître de grands champions comme Vermout, Teddy, Sir Galahad – ancêtre de Montjeu, Bois Roussel, Vatellor ou encore Plucky Liège. C'est aussi ici que Peinture Rare a terminé sa vie, légendaire mère de Peintre Célèbre qui s'était adjugé le Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.
